

I can hear

the gears turning in your head.

You
charlatan.

Damn it...
Can he read
people's minds?

Indeed.
It's my special ability.

Although,
to be more
precise,

I can hear them.

Which
is strange.
My ability
isn't supposed
to work
on vampires,
and yet
it works
on you.
Why is that,
I wonder?

Unless... you are both vampire and human.

Ah,
a half-blood?

TH MP

Aw,
what an honest
reaction.

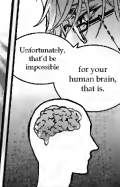

I'm
found
out!!

Compared
to your
forked tongue,
that part of you
certainly seems very human.

I see...
So even if a half-blood is turned into a mutant, their human attributes
never disappear.

Hence
your betwixt
and between ability.

In other words,

You may as well be standing naked in front of me.

I can see everything.

Wh... where are you looking?!!

STARE

Too bad for you, that part also remained human.

Damn him... my complex...!

FUNCH

Now that I take a good look at you, don't you have quite a few insecurities?

There's that human height I didn't notice earlier because of your platform shoes.

Shut up!!

Poor thing, in your entire 200 years, you have never been with a single woman? Hold on, let me wipe my tears...

Shut up!

Oh,

you still have a Mongolian spot at this age?

AARGH!!

Would you please shut your trap!!

... Now that I see it in action, it really is a terrifying ability!

It's a good thing his ability doesn't work on us...

Didn't work on him because he's a vampire. (But I hope you're not a vampire!)

Didn't work on him either because he's human. (Easy-peasy!)

...Agreed.

CHI

How could such a game-cheat ability exist?

Since he can read my thoughts,

there is no plan or trick that'd work on him.

...He's left me with no choices.

I'll have to use Olivia.

Make her
your hostage
and escape,

Is it?

....Shit!

You willfully kidnapped her, and now that things aren't going your way, you're ready to toss her aside to save your own skin?

How very human of you.

Then I shall deal with you as a human would.

BAM BAM BAM

...Won't he die at this rate?

He'll be fine. I've never heard of a Gourmet getting parched to death before.

Don't even think about
it.

If you take just one more step

I will rip your remaining
arm off.

SHIVER

God damnit!!

GRIT

Why is there such a big difference between us?

I didn't want to be only half-mutant.

If only there was a way to get rid of all
the human in me,

I could be just like them.

A perfect mutant,
like Olivia...

It's
futile.

You cannot pull her out of my hypnosis. I can confidently say that this skill is way
more reliable than
my ability.

I've used her weakness to put her into a
deep trance.
She'll never wake up.

But who knows,
maybe if you give
her a strong enough
shock, she might
wake up

I can easily
undo my hypnosis,
of course, but not
even over my dead
body will I tell you.

SHALL I GRANT
YOU THAT WISH?

...
Eek!!

I thought you couldn't
kill your own
kind?!

A strong
shock,
huh...

Do it,
Mano.

...Huh?
Do
what?

Vampire Library

You know.
The thing
you did
that woke me up

Oh...
That?!

Go,

Mano.

This is for your
sake, Olivia
...

SLIP

...I will do it.

Olivia,

Can you
hear me?

The words
I couldn't say to you
that time...
I'm going to say
them now.

So if you want to stop
me,

You'll have to wake up, Olivia.

I
love
you.

I love you.

I love you.

I loved you.

*I'm in love
with you.*

Olivia.

...I love you.

...Every person

who had said that to me has left me.

You

are no different.

too

will abandon me in the end,
won't you?

I don't want to be alone
anymore.

...I'm
sorry,

Olivia.

I have loved
you

from the moment I first laid eyes
on you

When I
held out my hand
towards you that day, I swore
to myself

that I would protect you as your colleague.

And on the day

that you reached for
my hand,

I reavowed
the same
oath.

Why can't
it be me...

Olivia,
you can understand
me, right?
I saw you
first.

I've
also loved
you for much longer than
he has.
You'll help me,
won't you?

I knew I should've
finished him off...

GET

REACH...

Olivia...!

Fall or Phoney
or whatever, you
stalker bastard!

GR

I have a lot I'd like to say to you
about what you did to me, but I'm going to cut
it down to just
three things,
so listen up!

First of all,
I didn't become a mutant by choice.

Both of us
actually pitiful existences.

Although,
I suppose you
wouldn't understand why...

As for the second,

You're right,
I can create
weapons
from my fire.
The whip is just
my personal preference.

Therefore,

this is also possible.

bazooka
?!!

And finally,

This dress
isn't to my taste at all.

It's hideous.

Her hair...
looks like
fireworks.

Engulfing
everything
it touches.

Fierce

And beautiful

The professor
truly did love you.

However,

I will never
let you know.

You will forever be abandoned in your memory of him.

Restrain
him.

... Just like me.

Another
failure.

I have
wasted
yet another
precious
life...

CRASH!

The professor,
though a genius,
for all that
exceptional intellect,
had a terribly
delicate heart. .

A researcher
succumbing to guilt.
How ridiculous.

Professor

Relax.

You've made it this far.

You will soon succeed.

All these volunteered subjects believe in our cause.

promise of eternal life to the rich, and a fine dash to the poor.

that was all it took to entice them.

They are glad to be given a chance to be part of your great research.

Fall...

Don't worry, Professor. Just focus on your experiment.

I will take care of everything.
As always.

...Huh.

Right,
the head is dealt with.

The
sunlight
should take care of the rest in the morning.

Hah--!!

Another
attack...

THUD

Being half-human
half-vampire is the worst.

On top of having a weak physique, there are also these attacks...

Just
a little longer...

After I only have to endure
this for a little longer, once the professor
succeeds in finding the necessary factors
for creating a mutant...

Then I can become one as well.

You're terminating
the experiment?

What... Why?

...I'm sorry.

SWH

But... You've just succeeded in creating a mutant,
haven't you?
If we examine Olima, then...

No!!

The project
is a failure.

From the beginning,
it was impossible to define concrete factors which contribute to the birth of a mutant.
I was too arrogant.

I cannot sacrifice more lives for such a meaningless
pursuit.

I have decided to spend the rest
of my life atoning
for what I've done
by taking care
of those who volunteered for
the experiment.

Olivia has also agreed to do
this with me.
Please
understand.

I can't let
it end
like this
...!

...Fine.

But
in return,
you must perform the experiment
one last time.

The
test subject
is a half-
blood
male.

Two days later, do this once we had obtained
conclusive results,
But there's no
helping it now...

I
volunteer.

Fall...

I won the bet.

I became the mutant
I so wished...

But I remained
a half-blood.

...I
see.

So in the end,
a half-blood
will always be a half-blood.

There
must be another
way.

...The
research
cannot end
here.

I will continue
the experiment.

You're the one
in the wrong,
running away
like a coward
and leaving me
in this state.

Both the professor and Olivia

are mine.

...
Baron?

What
are you thinking about?

Ah... it's nothing.

Would you
like to go outside
for some fresh air?

...Can
we? <_>

Sure. Ah
It's been ages,
after all. Do you remember where
I first met you?
Let's meet there.
But first...

Yes, yes.
I know how it is.
You have some work you need to finish first, right?
I'll go ahead and
stand around while waiting.

Olivia.

...I
love
you.

Look

carefully

SHAAA...

I know he is coming... soon...

...Olivia.

We were told
we might be able to find
you here.

Are you
all right?
